MEN'S CLASS BANQUET THEIR CONQUERORS IN ROYAL STYLE

For two or three weeks, in fact, ever since the close of that memorable contest when the Live Cole class of the Central Christian Sunday School won a membership and efficiency contest with the men's class, the Live Cole have been on the tip-toe of expectation regarding the banquet promised them as victors. This came off last evening in the bungalow of the church. The men, fearing to attempt such a difficult task with unpracticed hands, employed a committee of ladies of the church, famed as accomplished cooks, to prepare the feast. More than 60 were present and all were there to enjoy themselves. The tables were set in the form of a T, with the young people of the Live Cole class grouped on one side and the men and their wives on the other side and along the top and side of the cross arm. The menu consisted of roast beef, gravy, mashed potatoes, bread and butter, combination salad, beet and cucumber pickles, brick ice-cream, cake, tea and coffee. When the eating time was over, J. H. Orth, president of the men's class, stated briefly the particulars of the contest and expressed his satisfaction over the happy result in the way of increased membership to both classes and the good fellowship engendered. He then announced that several addresses would be made and for the first one called on Dr. (Continued on Page 4)

VIRDEN-FORSTER WEDDING

Miss Rose Virden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Virden of Mira Loma avenue, and Frederick Earl Forster, a former resident of this city, who has been more or less prominent as a film actor, stole a march on their many friends here and were quietly married last Saturday afternoon in the study of Rev. C. Elwood Nash, pastor of the First Universalist Church of Los Angeles. Following the ceremony they returned to Glendale where a nice little wedding supper was served at the Virden home and later Mr. and Mrs. Forster went to their own bungalow in Hollywood, which had been made ready by the groom.

The bride as one of the most attractive and popular young women of the southern end of the city has made many friends here.

The groom gave up his work during the war to enter the service and was sent to Vancouver in June, 1918. He was discharged a few months ago and returned to resume his former occupation at Hollywood. He also has many friends here and in the suburb named.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIAL

BEAUTIFUL STAGE SETTING AND FINE PROGRAM ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

A goodly number of soldiers and sailors and their friends responded to the invitation to attend the social at the First Presbyterian Church in this city Thursday evening to welcome home the service men. It was a Christian Endeavor function in charge of the president, J. A. Newton, ably assisted by Mrs. Newton, who arranged as a stage setting a beautiful Indian camp scene which made a fitting background for the girls in Indian costume who contributed the major part of the program.

The special guests were suitably welcomed by Mr. Newton and a word of prayer was offered by Prof. Harry Howe.

Boys of the High School Glee Club, in khaki suits, sang their familiar songs with ukulele accompaniment. Readings were given by Miss Mildred McKee, a whistling solo by Margery Nye, a vocal solo by Bernice Haun and an original sketch, entitled "Hoover's Garden" by Kathleen Campbell assisted by Margaret Brown. While these numbers were being given the lights were turned out and a spot light directed on the stage heightening the effect of the pretty scene.

When the program was concluded the audience adjourned to the Sunday School room and enjoyed games directed by Mrs. Newton, and then the light refreshments were served. They had been selected by some one who knows masculine weakness and the fact that wherever the American soldier boy may roam his heart and palate are true to pie. Apple pie a la mode was the treat offered and to judge by the expressions of the boys entertained it was highly satisfactory.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

WORK ON BRAND BOULEVARD BRIDGE ACROSS WASH MAY BE STARTED SOON

The Board assembled at 8 o'clock, March 27, 1919. Present at roll call, Trustees Henry, Woodberry, Muhleman. Absent, Trustees Jackson and Shaw.

The minutes of the regular meeting of March 13th were read and approved as were also the minutes of the regular meeting of March 20, 1919.

Mr. Arthur Brown appeared before the Board and spoke briefly in reference to the proposed opening and widening of Orange street.

Communication was received from the Los Angeles & Oxnard Daily Express requesting a permit to travel over the streets of the city. Owing to the informality of the application no action was taken, it being understood that the clerk would notify the applicant of the legal requirements.

Report of tax collector for the week ending on this date was presented showing collection of $649.96 since the last report, making a total to date of $60,187.74. Report was filed.

A communication was read from the city manager making report on recent tests of the pumping and fire engine furnished by the American La-France Company. Report was accompanied by a letter addressed to Fire Chief Lankford, dated the 15th instant, signed by Richard Waldron, Jr., Secretary of the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific Coast, showing that the pump is considered capable of performing the work intended and that the Underwriters accepted it as standard in its class. The communication suggested some correction in the work of a relief valve. A detailed schedule of the test made and the result also accompanied the communication. On motion of Trustee Muhleman formal acceptance of the engine was deferred for one week so that the change suggested in the Underwriters' report might be made.

Communication was read addressed to the Chairman of the Board by Jonathan S. Dodge calling attention to the fact that the Board of Supervisors of the county had set aside the sum of $20,000 as the county's appropriation of the expense of the construction of a bridge across the wash at Brand boulevard. Mr. Dodge stated that as the fiscal year is drawing to a close he wished to be informed as to the probability of this money being used in the near future. (Continued on Page 2)

O. E. S. CARD PARTY

Ladies representing the five star points of the Glen Eyrie Chapter, O. E. S., viz., Miss May Cornwell, chairman; Miss Mildred Lyon, Mesdames Theodosia Letts, Nellie Davis and Jennie Phillips, had charge of the charming Five Hundred party given by the chapter Thursday evening at Masonic Temple. Twenty-one tables were required to seat the players who came out to enjoy it and the chapter room where the function was given was beautifully decorated with large baskets of blue cornflowers through the courtesy of the Glendale Plant & Floral Company. The first prize, which was a beautiful hand-painted candle, candlestick and shade was won by Mrs. Alfred Land, the gentleman's prize, a bronze lion paperweight going to Albert Cornwell. Financially and in all other respects the party was a great success.

REVIVE MATINEE CLUB

MRS. JOHN ROBERT WHITE GOES TO SACRAMENTO TO JOIN THE ASSEMBLYMAN

Members of the Matinee Club, who used to attend the theatre together once a month before the war when life was a more leisurely affair than it became during the conflict, are talking of reviving their organization which was a very informal thing, but one which brought its members a great deal of pleasure. They were entertained at a five-course luncheon Thursday by one of their members, Mrs. John Robert White, of this city, who decorated her home most beautifully for the event, with lovely wild flowers in the dining room, fresias and jonquils in the living room. Covers were laid for Mesdames Claudius G. Farrow, W. A. Nash, Frank Hester, H. Lee Clotworthy, J. W. Usilton, Miss Clara Ringert and the hostess.

Mrs. White leaves tonight (Friday) to join Assemblyman White in Sacramento and remain with him until the close of the session. Her son, Robert, is there now with his father, one child will accompany her, and the other three will be mothered by Miss Ringert in her absence.

GRAND JURY RESUMES VICE PROBE

RUMORS THAT MAYOR WOODMAN WILL STEP OUT OF OFFICE CIRCULATE, BUT ARE UNCONFIRMED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, March 28.—The grand jury convened again today and resumed its probe of alleged municipal graft. Several prominent politicians, it was understood, would appear before the jury before night.

Mayor Woodman is still out of the city, but his friends said he probably would be back Monday. Rumors that the mayor was about to step out of office circulated freely about the City Hall and on the streets, but none of these rumors could be confirmed.

Two Roumanian army corps are reported to have crossed the frontier of Eastern Galicia.

BILL TO PROTECT TEACHERS

MEASURE KNOWN AS MATHER BILL BEING CONSIDERED BY EDUCATION COMMITTEE OF STATE ASSEMBLY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Sacramento, March 28.—The Assembly education committee is considering today the Mather Bill forbidding school trustees to discharge teachers except for a specified cause. The measure has the backing of 18,000 California teachers, who say that often teachers are discharged merely to make room for some one's friends.

The Assembly labor committee today recommended for passage the Hurley newsboys' bill, but included an amendment making ten years the minimum age for newspaper carriers and sellers and permitting them to work any time after 5 a. m.

RUSSIAN QUESTION UP AT PARIS

PEACE CONFERENCE MAY ADOPT DEFINITE POLICY AND DECIDE QUESTION OF SEPARATE TREATIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, March 28.—The Russian question is again becoming prominent at the peace conference. It appears possible that the conference soon will adopt a definite policy with regard to Russia.

William Bullitt, special investigator for the American delegation, is understood to have brought back from Russia a most comprehensive report of the situation. It is said the more conservative faction is gaining strength.

It was learned today that the question as to whether there would be one single peace treaty or separate treaties with all enemy countries is still undecided. The French and British maintain that it might be possible to include Austria and Germany in the same treaty, but that there must be separate treaties with Turkey and Bulgaria.

AMERICANS FRUSTRATE PLOT

DISCOVER PLAN TO ARM RUSSIAN PRISONERS IN GERMAN AND SCATTER THEM IN OTHER CAMPS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Berlin, March 28.—Russian Premier Lenine has sent a wireless to the Hungarian soviet government urging that it send a Bolshevik army against Germany, according to a Buda Pesth dispatch. Lenine promised to finance the expedition to the extent of $20,000,000.

American troops yesterday discovered that the Spartacans had planned to arm several thousand Russians held in Rathelmen prison. The Americans rushed the prisoners aboard trains and scattered them among other prison camps throughout Germany, placing Americans in charge of them.

It is believed this action broke up a Bolshevik plot to follow Hungary in declaring a soviet republic.

Radicals everywhere in Germany are planning to take matters into their own hands. In Wurtemberg they have declared a general strike, demanding the socialization of all industries. The Bavarian government has ordered all factories to begin work on a communistic basis. In Saxony the soviet has ordered the factories to communize the same as in Bavaria.

THANKSGIVING FEAST

MAYBE IT'S A LITTLE LATE, BUT THE BOYS WILL ENJOY IT JUST THE SAME

We used to hear a minstrel song long ago that sounded like this: "Christmas will come on the Fourth of July, in 1909." The Glendale service boys will hereafter sing it, "Thanksgiving will come on the 28th of March in 1919." Leastways that's how Louie Louis expressed it when urged to attend the supper to be given the soldier and sailor lads this evening in the First M. E. Church. When told that turkey and dressing figured on the menu Louie exclaimed: "Gee, that must be the Thanksgiving dinner we didn't get over there." Some of the boys seem to be rather indifferent about it. They didn't ask to be drawn into the war but when the U. S. just had to go in, the boys went across, did what they were sent to do, with neatness and dispatch, and now that they are home again they want to forget all about it, seemingly. They simply can't stand it to be lionized. But the boys should remember that it is just "home folks" doing this for them, their own mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts, and they will feel seriously hurt if there's not a big crowd of boys out to enjoy this turkey supper they have prepared with loving hands. And there will be an evening of rare enjoyment to follow the "eats." Remember the supper is in the First M. E. Church, corner Kenwood and Wilson avenue, and it begins at 6:30.

New impetus was given this concerted plan to honor our service men by the action taken at the Community Sing last night. It was decided that those present would constitute themselves a booster club to let all the boys know of the affair and urge their attendance, and that they would be present in a body at the after-meeting in the church auditorium to make the welkin ring with their joyous songs. And best of all, Prof. Kirchoffer will be there, too. He has a chorus to train in Hollywood, but arrangements were made to have a speedy auto waiting for him to finish with them when he would be whisked away to Glendale. Then with him to lead, some real soldier songs will be sung in a way to make everybody sit up and take notice. All who heard the contest sing on Thursday night of last week know what the Glendale chorus can do when Prof. Kirchoffer leads them. So tonight, after the boys get through dissecting the turkeys and fixin's they will march up-stairs to the auditorium of the church, where, after one or two patriotic songs, Dr. Guild, the noted war worker, who was at the front in France, will tell of some of the things he saw "over there." By the time he is through Prof. Kirchoffer will have arrived and then the roof will be weighted down to guard against danger when that grand burst of song opens up. It surely will be one grand sing.

By the way, Rev. Scott says that when the delicious aroma of roasting turkeys begins to spread around the city, just think of those seven noble birds reposing grandly in the ovens of the church kitchen. O boy, won't the Yanks all be there tonight?

N. B.: Prof. Kirchoffer wishes us to announce that among the songs to be sung will be "America," "Old Black Joe," "Dixie," "My Bonnie," and "Katie." He urges every member of the regular Glendale chorus of the Community Sing to be present.

DON'T BE LATE

REMEMBER THE CLOCKS ALL MOVE FORWARD ONE HOUR NEXT SUNDAY

The fellow who does not turn his clock forward next Sunday morning is going to be an hour late at Sunday School. All the Sunday Schools of the city will observe the change, so the sessions will begin one hour earlier than usual by sun time, but just the same if you turn your clock forward as the rest of the people do and as Uncle Sam commands. It may be a little hard at first, but soon this feeling will wear off and you will forget all about the change.

Have you seen him, sitting on the edge of the sidewalk with a little boy yelling into his ears the descriptions of scenes in his picture book? How sad to see one of our noble protectors from the fire fiend so afflicted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCormick of 1011 Melrose avenue have welcomed a second daughter and third child to their home, little Mary Elizabeth, who was born at Thornycroft last Saturday. Mrs. McCormick and child are doing well and expect to return to the McCormick home in a few days.

HOUSE PARTY

STUDENT FRIENDS OF DAUGHTER OF HOUSE ENTERTAINED AT WILLISFORD HOME

Miss Carol Willisford, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford, who is attending Pomona College, came home Saturday for the spring vacation which students in that institution are enjoying as usual because that school did not close on account of the influenza epidemic.

Monday evening a house party of her fellow students was entertained at her home, the list of friends including Misses Vera Good of Fullerton, Rachel Stilwell of South Pasadena, Rhea Rimpau of Hollywood, Mildred Wight of Eagle Rock and Cornelia Goertz of Mountain Lake, Minn., also Grace and Alice Gray Beach and Evangeline Huntley of this city. Four of the young ladies returned to their homes Tuesday, but Miss Good remained until Wednesday. Tuesday evening Messrs. W. L. Moore and Howard McGillis were entertained at dinner at the Willisford home.

OUR COUNTY LEADS

LOS ANGELES COUNTY LARGELY EXCEEDS IN POPULATION ANY OTHER IN STATE

The normal registration of voters in Los Angeles county is 350,000. That of San Francisco county is less than 200,000, practically the same as for Los Angeles city alone. In San Francisco county there is but one incorporated city, San Francisco. Los cisco county has but 50 square miles, cities besides the big one. San Francisco county is but 50 square miles, less than five times the area of Glendale. Los Angeles city alone covers 362 square miles and the county 4,009. Were all of Los Angeles city's territory as thickly settled as is that of San Francisco, her population would be 3,620,000. There are thousands of acres within the city limits that are still used for agricultural purposes.

EAGLE ROCK TRAGEDY

DEATH OF DOROTHY GOULD AND GEORGE REED FROM MUSHROOM POISONING

The many friends of Rev. S. Lawrence Ward, who preceded Dr. Edmunds as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, will be distressed to learn of the tragedy which has involved members of his family. Mr. Ward is now pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Tracy, California, but Mrs. Ward has for some time been with her widowed daughter, Mrs. Reed, who, with her two children, has been making her home in the eastern part of Eagle Rock near Garvanza. With them was Mr. Ward's niece, Miss Dorothy Gould, well known in Glendale where she attended High School. They are all fond of mushrooms and so she made up a party to gather those which have been brought forward by the recent rains. They were subjected to all the known tests and believed to be perfectly harmless but after they had been eaten all the members of the family were taken violently ill and two are dead. Miss Dorothy Gould was buried Thursday and the funeral of little four-year-old George Reed will be held today (Friday). Rev. Ward was summoned and is now with his family, also his daughter Miss Gertrude Ward who is taking a nurse's training course in the Angelus Hospital. Latest news to Mrs. Sarah Tupper of this city from the hospital where the victims are being cared for was to the effect that Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Reed are better and it is believed will recover, but the little two-year-old daughter of Mrs. Reed is still critically ill.

The death of Miss Gould is a great shock to her many friends in Glendale whom she visited about a week ago. Her parents who now reside in San Luis Obispo, built what was known as the Gould Castle in La Crescenta, and are well known here. She was an artist and had a studio in Los Angeles, making her home at Eagle Rock with her aunt and cousin.

The three sons of Rev. and Mrs. Ward are widely separated from each other and from their parents. Lawrence Ward is an aviator in France, Captain Benjamin Ward, a physician, is in service at the base hospital in Camp Lewis, Paul Ward, formerly a High School teacher in Los Angeles, is in the employ of a mining company in Chili, South America.

MARRIED IN GLENDAL E
There was a very pretty wedding in Glendale Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Robison, 407 N. Louise street, her sister, Miss Lydia J. Grigg, plighting her troth to Gabriel E. Howland. The young people both live in Pasadena and the officiating minister, Rev. L. Potter Hitchcock, is also from that city, pastor of the "Neighborhood" Church. The Robison home was beautifully decorated in pink sweet peas, carnations and spring flowers. The bride was dressed in white and carried orange blossoms. After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served. The table was decorated in pink and white. After a short honeymoon trip the young people will return to make their home in Glendale.

EASTER OPENING
Mrs. Anna L. Smith is very busy these days getting ready for her grand opening of Easter hats and novelties next Thursday. There will be some pleasant surprises for all who attend.

HOME AGAIN, GONE AGAIN

Private Homer L. Bullard of 455 Salem street, who was with the 41st Division and saw service in France for more than a year at a base supply camp, was sent home a short time ago, discharged at the Presidio and reached Glendale about a week ago. He is delighted to get back and says: "It's America for me," though he also speaks appreciatively of the great kindness of the French people to the American soldiers and of the efforts they made to contribute to their comfort. According to his tell the climate is a poor substitute for that of California. Where he was it rained most of the time. He is already provided with a job and leaves Friday to go to Bakersfield as an employee of the Edison Electric Co.

BIRTHDAY RECEPTION
The second birthday of little "Sister Sue," daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moore, was quite elaborately celebrated Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents on South Maryland Avenue. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in lavish floral decorations of carnations and sweet peas and in the refreshments, which included sandwiches and coffee, a pink and white birthday cake bearing two pink rosebuds supporting candles, and pink and white brick ice cream centered with the figure 2.
The little girl was the recipient of many handsome gifts, including a pearl necklace sent by Mrs. Belle Critchett of El Paso, two beautiful dress patterns and trimmings from her great aunt, Mrs. William Sloan of Fresno, and gifts from Miss Julia Luther of San Jose, Calif.
The following guests were entertained at the reception given in honor of the little girl from 2 to 5: Mesdames A. J. Harrison, James McDonald, Lou Morehouse, Glenn Widmark and Miss Bernice Morehouse of Glendale; Mesdames Frank Lintner, Frank Mellert, William Evans, F. Brown, Paul Brasee and Miss Sue Brasee, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Milton Thompson and little daughter, Mesdames Jesse Ennor, Charles Archer, William Crane, William McNaughton, Myrtle Langdon and daughter, Mrs. P. T. Richards and Mrs. Perch, all of Los Angeles.

AT PALACE GRAND
Glendale patrons of the Palace Grand Theatre will have an opportunity to realize "The Great Romance," as presented by Harold Lockwood this afternoon and evening. It is said to picture a Garden of Eden without the serpent and to have a very beautiful setting. The Burton Holmes out-door pictures will also be shown.

Saturday the tremendously popular Marguerite Clark will fill the name part in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," one of those perennial joy makers of which the public never tires. It is a good, wholesome play for children to see and one to refresh their tired seniors.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER TEST
The test of a fire extinguisher on a vacant lot near the corner of Louise and Broadway Thursday afternoon drew quite a crowd. A wooden shaft about three feet square and 12 feet high was set up, the boards smeared with tar and then coal oil dashed upon them till they were thoroughly drenched. This was touched off with a match and more coal oil thrown upon the high-leaping flames. When they towered to a height of fully 20 feet the powder was flung upon the base of the pillar of fire and instantly extinguished it.
Later a bucket of gasoline was set on fire but the leaping flames were instantly smothered when the powder was dashed on them.

SAND DUNE STUDIES
The artist has superseded the student in the window of the Gilman Stationery Art Shop at 119 South Brand boulevard. Instead of rulers and school books a collection of beautiful hand-colored photographs of sand dunes carved into strange shapes, lovely curves and ripples by wind and wave, artistically framed, together with the Rozane Art Pottery, in the same soft neutral tints, occupies the window which has been readjusted to permit a pyramid or fan-shaped arrangement radiating from a huge jar containing blue and white fleur de lis. It is a window which many will pause to admire. Mr. Gilman is especially enthusiastic over the pictures as he has lived near the sand dunes and knows them in all their variations like an old friend. The story he tells of the man who is putting them out is of interest. His name is Martin Behrman. He is an artist who lives in Oakland. He is a great lover of the sand dunes and for years has made them his special study. To catch and record fleeting effects in the course of his sketching trips he made use of the camera. Then he began tinting the photographs and the demand for them grew among his friends. The art shops wanted them and it has naturally evolved into a special business. They are all so beautiful Mr. Gilman found it hard to decide which ones he liked best in selecting stock for his store. They demonstrate that it pays to concentrate, as Mr. Behrman has done on these sand dune studies. He claims there is no place in this country or perhaps in the world where the effects can be obtained that are seen on this coast. For that reason the pictures are typically Californian.

There was a time when a moonshiner could go into a mountain cove, pitch his still by the side of a crystal brook and leisurely and peacefully make his liquor. He took his time, and made good liquor. He filtered it through charcoal to eliminate the fusil oil. He strained it through layers of flannel cloth to make it smooth and pure. That was the "mountain dew" that could be imbibed without a chaser and with no fear of a headache on the morrow.

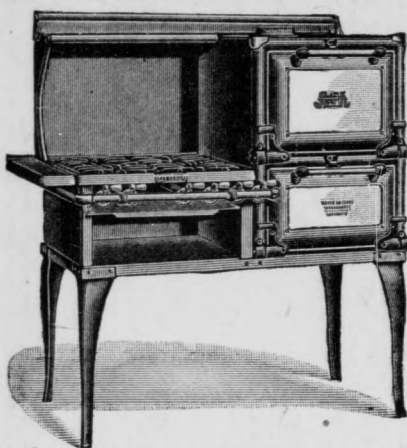

But now that's all changed, revenue officers say. Officials are stalking the moonshiners day and night. The operator of an illicit still has no time to make good liquor. He pitches his outfit one day and is gone the next. He is forced to use chemicals to speed up the processes of distilling.

Durfee, former teacher of the class, who spoke in happy then serious vein, of the past accomplishments of the two classes and the responsibilities before them, asking the question again and again in regard to Christian work and living, "Does it pay?"

A. L. Laws followed with a brief discussion of internal and external hindrances to the growth of the Church of Jesus Christ, referring reminiscently to his own experiences as a churchman when editor of a country weekly back in old Indiana, as auditor for the U. S. government in the Philippine Islands for several years, as Indian agent in Arizona for five years and finally as an humble worker with Bro. Cole in the Glendale church. Pastor Cole followed in humorous vein, parodying the names of some of those present to illustrate the cosmopolitan makeup of the congregation. Miss Birdie Shropshire as vice-president of the Live Cole class and official booster of the contest, told of her work and the joy of it; Fred Thompson, teacher of the Men's Class, made a short talk, felicitating the men on their good work and congratulating the young people on their success in the contest; Rev. Bert Dungan, of San Bernardino, a welcome guest, spoke briefly of his own work and his interest in the work of the other churches in Southern California. Willard Learned, as superintendent of the Sunday School, told of the good done to the whole school as well as to the two contesting classes by the spirited rivalry, then referred to the pre-Easter campaign now on in the Sunday School. Homer Miller arose to disclaim some of the credit given him for the success of the contest, claiming he only did his part, and Oscar Whitaker described the sensations of a brand new papa on welcoming the first child to the home. The venerable D. R. Dungan, the "Grand Old Man" of the Southern California Christian Brotherhood, fitly closed the speaking with a grand tribute to the Bible, the book of books.

Wen there's luv hat 'ome,
 'ome, sweet 'ome,
 Smile, and the world smiles
 with you;
 Weep, and you weep alone.
